CURRENT NEWS AND COMMENT.

THE administration has now passed into the hands of the democratic party. President Cleveland was inaugurated on Saturday, amid the wildest enthusiasm, the oath of office being administered by Chief Justice Fuller. A blinding snow storm interfered somewhat with the original program for the ceremonies, but it was notwithstanding a grand affair. Every body should now be happy, for now the popular song is:

Grover, Grover!
Four more years of Grover.
In we go, out they go.
And now we'll be in clover.

A CYCLONE swept through a portion of Mississippi on Friday. At Barnett, a small station on the Queen and Crescent railroad, fourteen persons are said to have been killed. Buildings were wrecked and debris strewn in every direction. Eight members of Daniel Barnett's family were caught under falling timbers and crushed to death. The whole town of Pachula was destroyed, scarcely a house left standing.

THE Sentinel Democrat of Mt. Sterling, last week stated that the gas well at that place had proven a complete fizzle. It is to be hoped, however, that gas will yet be found there in paying quantities, as the growth of that place would materially aid development of this section, and we hope the enterprising citizens will not yet abandon work in that direction.

JUDGE JEWELL, of the Lexington city court, last week did a very handsome thing in appointing as police commissioner John B. Rogers, who will represent in that body the labor organization of the city. "Dutch" Rogers, as he is familiarly known among his friends, is every way worthy, and the laboring masses will rejoice at his preference.

WHILE the new administration is changed politically, it is a noticeable instance that religiously it is the same as under President Harrison, Mr. Cleveland being also a Presbyterian. Indeed the vice-president and all the members of the cabinet are Presbyterians in belief.

At Ford, Ky., Saturday, Mrs. Mattie Hambrick cut the throat of her eight-year-old daughter while the little one was asleep, causing instant death. She then tried to kill her sister. The woman was insane.

M. L. BARKER committed suicide in the Anchorage Asylum Saturday night. It was his fourth attempt within a week, and he proved the truth of the old adage "if at first you don't succeed, try, try again."

Hon Joe M. Kendall has our thanks for a copy of his address on the life and character of Hon. John S. Barbour, of Virginia, and we shall try, in a future issue of our paper, to reproduce it for our readers.

THE mayor of Lexington has been sued by a saloon keeper of that place to force the issue of a whisky license.

WORLD'S FAIR MANAGERS.

They Discuss the Furnishing of the State Building.

The Kentucky board of managers of the World's Columbian exposition finished a two days session yesterday. The managers discussed the furnishing of the Kentucky building at some length. In most other states the merchants, manufacturers and others have taken this matter up, but in Kentucky little in this line has been done. George C. Brent, of Chicago, has given the board of managers a $1,000 piano to be placed in the woman's parlor of the state building. At the close of the exposition the managers may sell it or make whatever disposition they see fit.

W. H. McKnight & Co., of Louisville, have offered to furnish the curtains for the woman's parlor. Mrs. Koehler, of Louisville, will also donate some handsome and artistic decorations.

Garth & Shackleton will decorate in handsome style the Kentucky pavilion of the agricultural building. It will be solely a tobacco exhibit, costing $1,500, but there will not be the least advertisement about it.

Each member of the board of managers made a favorable report of the progress of the work under his direction. A great deal has been accomplished, and in fact, Kentucky is as well along as most of the other states, in spite of the long delay through the failure to secure an appropriation. The women of the executive committee made an encouraging report. In it was a detailed statement of every exhibit that has been received in the Kentucky pavilion of the woman's national building.—Courier-Journal, March 3.

DR. WHITEHALL'S RHEUMATIC CURE

For the benefit of persons afflicted with rheumatism in any of its various forms, we confidently offer DR. WHITEHALL'S RHEUMATIC CURE as a prompt and efficient remedy, one that can be relied upon at all times. In the inflammatory form of the disease, relief may be expected in a few hours, the fever subsiding, the pain ceasing and swelling diminishing from the beginning of the treatment.

In the treatment of chronic cases, in order to eliminate the constantly accumulating poison from the system, the remedy must be persevered in until a healthy action of the different organs can be established, and its formation entirely suspended. Persons liable to rheumatic attacks from any cause, such as error in diet, exposure to draft of air, over heating, dampness or change in the weather, should begin to take the remedy as soon as first a tincture is noticed, thereby avoiding much distress, inconvenience and pain.

If you have stiff neck, lame back, muscular soreness, tender, inflamed and swollen joints, you can confidently expect quick relief by the use of DR. WHITEHALL'S RHEUMATIC CURE.
